Location

allthingsIC:

It's a two-minute walk from Covent Garden station (Piccadilly Line) and a five-minute walk from Holborn Tube station (Piccadilly and Central Lines). It's at the junction of Long Acre and Drury Lane.

Getting here

allthingsIC:

Approximate times

- From Leicester Square: (Northern and Piccadilly Lines): 10-minute walk
- From Charing Cross: (Northern Line and Overground): 12-minute walk
- From Waterloo: 5-10 minutes via bus/taxi/Tube
- From Euston: 10-15 minutes via bus/taxi/Tube
- From Paddington: 20-25 minutes via bus/taxi/Tube.

Timings and food

Breakfast is available from 8.30am if you fancy it. The Masterclass starts at 9am and finishes at 4.30pm.

You'll not go hungry! A tasty lunch will be served. There will also be tea, Fair-trade coffee, juices, soft drinks, retro-sweets, cookies, fruit and nuts available all-day long. This is all included. Do let me know any dietary requirements.

Access and attire

The venue is a converted Victorian chandelier showroom. This makes for a quirky building, but presents some accessibility challenges. Please let me know if you have any access requirements.

Dress: Business casual

Wear what you feel comfortable in. Think shirt and no tie. You can wear jeans if you wish.

Free Wi-Fi is available. You don't need to bring a laptop.

See you soon

CIPR and IoIC members can earn 10 CPD points / six hours from attending one of my courses. Everyone leaves with a certificate of attendance.

Please get in touch with any queries: rachel@allthingsic.com.

Thank you for choosing All Things IC.
